*While a disagreement does not automatically prohibit a student from being admitted, most, if not all, of the questions are considered to be in agreement with basic, Orthodox Christianity. Moreover, the programs within LBTS are considered "vocational programs," which means that since LBTS puts their "stamp of approval" on each student they admit and graduate, they reserve the right to ensure that their students meet what it considers to be basic, Christian principles of Scripture.

* If you disagree with a statement, please attach to this questionnaire a rationale as to why you disagree.
